POOL PARKING URGENT? STa 7/28/19

Cools

swimming pool at Andrews Air the work was accomplished." Force Base as "essential and It added that it is revising its was not used as a food-inspecof self-defense."

The watchdog, the General lem. Accounting Office, said in a report yesterday that the parking lot isn't essential at all and that the classification is merely tions made by the GAO:

Disciplinary Move Asked

The GAO demanded that the

By the Associated Press
A congressional watchdog report appear to have resulted without authorization from agency has challenged the Air primarily from unintended in Congress, if the project is terpretations of directives and classified as urgent. But the ing lot next to the officers regulations in effect at the time GAO urgently needed in the interest construction directives and believes this will solve the prob-

Other Instances

Here are some of the asser-

Besides the pool parking lot, runway construction money to ing of funds for urgent proj-the GAO cited such projects as build a golf course, golf club-ects alone. a golf course, a riding stable house, and riding stables at an and a pet hospital as it accused Lockbourne Air Force Base, projects submitted as urgent, the Air Force of using funds to Ohio. The GAO said Congress said they "were classified as build projects without congres- had authorized the runway but urgently needed, to permit their sional approval. had no idea money would be construction without prior condiverted for recreational facili-gressional approval, although it ties.

Air Force discipline the individuals responsible for the way used to finance the projects.

Commenting on the report, the Air Force, under the law, may funds."

2. During the 1961 fiscal year, were so labeled not so much on the Air Force spent $24,665 to the urgency of their need but on the likelihood that they would inspection facility which it not be approved for accomplishment with military construction funds."

GAO said its investigation showed the converted building tion facility at all but as a veterinary hospital for sentry dogs and pets om men on the base.

3. The Air Force awarded contracts for the installation of lawn sprinklers and an addition to the officers club at Kirtland a screen used to build the lot without congressional approval. Force used $272,000 of airport the clause that permits spend-was apparent that the projects 2. During the 1961 fiscal year, were so labeled not so much on